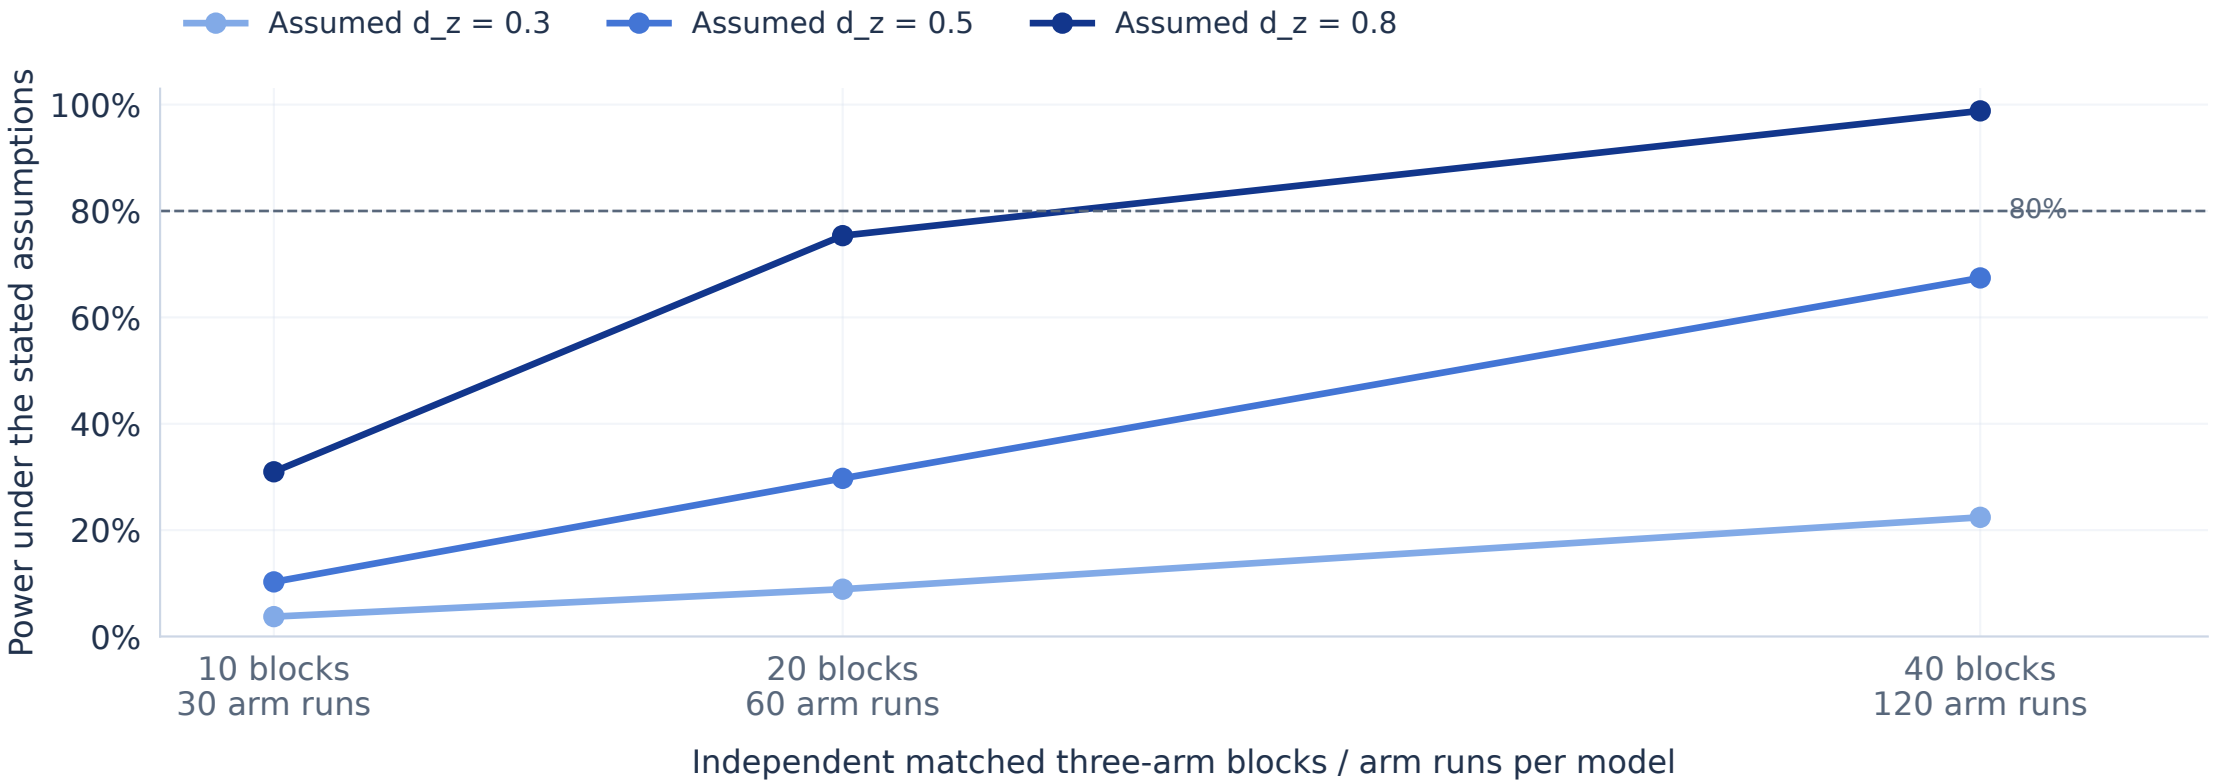
Planning only: power needs independent replications

Prospective assumption calculation | three arms per block | no observed effects used



Two-sided paired t test; α = .01 per endpoint (.05 / 5), normal independent block contrasts; fixed sample size.

d_z = mean paired difference / SD of paired differences. Per-model family only; four-model confirmation needs additional multiplicity control.